

Prayer of Peace

in the spirit of Taizé

Oración de Paz

en el espíritu de Taizé

June 13, 2022

Welcome to a time of contemplative prayer in the spirit of Taizé.

Prayer is a serene force at work within human beings, stirring them up, transforming them, never allowing them to close their eyes in the face of evil, of wars, of all that threatens the weak of this world. From it we draw the energy to wage other struggles—to enable our loved ones to survive, to transform the human condition, to make the earth a place fit to live. All who walk in the footsteps of Christ, while holding themselves in the presence of God, remain alongside other people as well. They do not separate prayer and solidarity with others.

Tonight, the visual focal points for our prayer includes a fountain of water. Water is a primal element that is connected both to life/growth and death/destruction. In baptism we find eternal life through death by water and the Holy Spirit, joined to Christ's death, burial and resurrection. Water is a rich symbol of the grace God gives us.

Bienvenidos a un tiempo de oración contemplativa en el espíritu de Taizé.

La oración es una fuerza serena que actúa en los seres humanos, los estimula, los transforma, nunca permitiéndoles cerrar los ojos ante el mal, las guerras, a todo lo que amenaza a los débiles de este mundo. De ella sacamos la energía para librarnos de otras luchas: permitir que nuestros seres queridos sobrevivan, para transformar la condición humana, para hacer de la tierra un lugar adecuado para vivir. Todos los que siguen los pasos de Cristo, mientras se mantienen en la presencia de Dios, también permanecen junto a otras personas. No separan la oración y la solidaridad con los demás.

Esta noche, los puntos focales para nuestros ojos incluyen una fuente de agua. El agua es un elemento primario que está conectado tanto con la vida y el crecimiento como con la muerte y la destrucción. En el bautismo encontramos la vida eterna a través de la muerte por el agua y el Espíritu Santo. Estamos muertos, sepultados y resucitados con Cristo. El agua es un símbolo poderoso de la gracia de Dios.

Psalm | Salmo 145:1, 3-5, 8-9

I will extol you, my God and king, and bless your name forever and ever.

The Lord is great and highly to be praised;
his greatness cannot be measured.

Age to age shall proclaim your works, shall declare your mighty deeds.

They will tell of your great glory and splendor, and recount your wonderful works.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in mercy.

How good is the Lord to all,
compassionate to all his creatures.

Te celebro, oh Rey mi Dios, y bendigo tu nombre para siempre.

Grande es el Señor, muy digno de alabanza, y no puede medirse su grandeza.

De generación en generación se celebran
tus obras, se cuentan tus proezas.

El esplendor, la gloria de tu Nombre, tus maravillas, los repetiré.

El Señor es ternura y compasión, paciente
y lleno de amor.

El Señor es bondad para con
todos, sus ternuras están en todas sus obras.

Reading

John 13:33a, 34-35
(Love one another...)

Jesus said, Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another.

Lectura

Juan 13,33a. 34-35
(Amarse unos a otros...)

Jesús dijo: Ahora es glorificado el Hijo del hombre y Dios es glorificado en él. Les doy un mandamiento nuevo: que se amen los unos a los otros. Ustedes deben amarse unos a otros como yo los he amado. En esto reconocerán todos que son mis discípulos, en que se amen unos a otros.

Song of Water

Symbols—fire, water, incense, sounds, etc.—are powerful ways of hinting at and expressing that which is beyond words. Tonight, the symbol that carries the weight of our beliefs, our prayers and our purposes is water.

A fountain of water is prominently placed up front. While we sing the song on the next page, As the Deer Longs, you are invited to come forward, dip your hand in the water and remind yourself of your baptism. Let it refresh us and remind us that we are baptized as priests, prophets and children of God, members of a royal family.

Canto del agua

Los símbolos—el fuego, el agua, el incienso, los sonidos, etc.—son maneras poderosas de indicar y expresar lo que está más allá de las palabras. Esta noche, el símbolo que lleva el peso de nuestras creencias, nuestras oraciones y nuestros propósitos es el agua.

Hay una fuente de agua al frente. Durante el canto a continuación, As the Deer Longs, se le invita a pasar al frente, tocar el agua y recordarse de su bautismo. Que ésta nos refresqué, y nos recuerde que somos bautizados como sacerdotes, profetas y niños de Dios, miembros de una familia real.

As the Deer Longs | Como busca la cierva

[“Como busca la cierva corrientes de agua, así mi alma te busca a ti.”]

Ostinato

As the deer longs for run - ning streams, so I long,
so I long for you.

Silent Prayer

(5-8 minutes)

When we try to express communion with God in words, we rapidly reach the end of our capacities. But in the depths of our being, through the Holy Spirit, Christ is praying, far more than we imagine. Compared to the immensity of that hidden prayer of Christ in us, our explicit prayer dwindles to almost nothing. That is why silence is so essential in discovering the heart of prayer.

Oraciones en silencio

(5-8 minutos)

Cuando tratamos de expresar comunión con Dios en palabras, alcanzamos rápidamente el final de nuestras capacidades. Pero, en lo más profundo de nuestro ser, a través del Espíritu Santo, Cristo está orando, mucho más de lo que imaginamos. En comparación con la inmensidad de esa oración oculta de Cristo en nosotros, nuestra oración explícita se reduce a casi nada. Es por eso que el silencio es tan esencial para descubrir el corazón de la oración.

The Lord's Prayer

The Lord's prayer exists in different English versions. The following ecumenical text for this prayer may help you to pray in a more conscious way.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.

Your kingdom come, your will be done
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen!

Padrenuestro

Hay diferentes idiomas y palabras, pero un solo Señor. Podemos orar juntos con una mezcla de palabras porque Dios entiende nuestros corazones.

Padre nuestro, que estás en el cielo,
santificado sea tu Nombre;
venga a nosotros tu reino;
hágase tu voluntad en la tierra
como en el cielo.

Danos hoy nuestro pan de cada día;
perdona nuestras ofensas,
como también nosotros perdonamos
a los que nos ofenden;
no nos dejes caer en la tentación,
y líbranos del mal.

Tuyo es el reino, tuyo el poder y la gloria,
por siempre, Señor. ¡Amen!

Planting peace in the community

We are very grateful for the free-will offerings that we receive each month. The money we've collected has been used to help the St. Mary food pantry, purchase candles, and purchase two icons.

We have enough money set aside now to do a larger project: purchase a peace pole for St. Mary Church. The church has been very generous in supporting the Prayer of Peace, and we were curious to discover that it is one of the very few churches in the area that does not already have a peace pole.

Peace poles are a tradition that began 50 years ago. As there are monuments to war, these are monuments to peace, uniting people across the world through the universal peace message, "May Peace Prevail on Earth." More than 200,000 peace poles have been made and erected by people around the world, including such notable locations as the north magnetic pole, the Hiroshima Peace Memorial, and the site of the Egyptian pyramids in Giza. "The phrase 'May Peace Prevail on Earth' is a straightforward wish. It carries no political baggage. It's a sentiment that can be shared by all humans—who doesn't want peace? —regardless of other opposing worldviews."

We'd like your input

There is room on the peace pole for eight languages. It makes sense to include the most prevalent local languages, English and Spanish. That leaves six more to choose! Give us your suggestions for the languages you believe would be appreciated by those in Grand Rapids who will see the pole and appreciate its meaning. Suggestion slips are available near the doors of the church. Please write your suggestions on a slip and place it in the nearby basket! Or, email your suggestions to taize@prayerofpeacegr.org.
